

Srebrenica, 1995-2015: Lessons and Legacies of the Bosnian War

International Conference
Friday, September 25
10:00-16:30

10:00-12:30

Word of Welcome

Guri Hjeltnes (HL-senteret, Norway)

Introduction:

Anton Weiss-Wendt (HL-senteret, Norway)

Keynote Address:

Marko Attila Hoare (Kingston University, UK)

“The Place of the Srebrenica Massacre in the Bosnian Genocide”

Session I: The Srebrenica Crime Scene

Chair: Anton Weiss-Wendt

Helge Brunborg (Statistics Norway)

“Accounting for Genocide: How Many Were Killed at Srebrenica?”

Ewa Elwira Klonowski (University of Iceland)

“The Process of Exhumation, Examination, and Identification of Srebrenica Victims”

Christian Nielsen (University of Aarhus, Denmark)

“Comparative Victimhood in the Former Yugoslavia Before and After Srebrenica”

12:30-13:30

Lunch: Café Villa Grande

13:30-16:30

Session II: Atrocities in the Bosnian War and the Aftermath

Chair: Ellen Stensrud (HL-senteret, Norway)

Tomislav Dulic (University of Uppsala, Sweden)

“The Topography of Violence: Explaining the Geographical Distribution of Civilian Deaths in Bosnia and Herzegovina, 1992-95”

Aleksandra Sasha Milicevic (Keiser University, USA)

“Serbian State, Paramilitaries and Wars in Former Yugoslavia”

Inger Skjelsbæk (PRIO, Norway)

“Perpetrators of Sexual Violence Before the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia”

Coffee break

Arne Johan Vetlesen (University of Oslo, Norway)

“Genocide and Denial: The Case of Srebrenica”

Roland Kostic (University of Uppsala, Sweden)

“The Long Road Toward Reconciliation: Popular Views on the Past, Present, and Future in Bosnia and Herzegovina Twenty Years After Dayton”